100th Farm Show 2016

Exhibits for the 2016 Pa Farm Show will be accepted on Thursday, Jan. 7th, 2016. Entries begin at 9:00AM and will close at 6:00PM

Every effort should be made to enter extracted honey into it's proper color class. We encourage you to enter a class lighter and darker than what you think your extracted honey is. It will be checked upon entry using a digital Pfund scale along with visual color standards to make final determinations and placed in the correct color class. Any extra tags will be disregarded.

You must register on-line at:

Judging will be done on Friday, Jan. 8th. The Farm Show officially opens to the public on Saturday, January 9th and runs through Saturday, January 16th.

Farm Show 2016, January 8th - 6th is in need of volunteers to help at the Pennsylvania Beekeepers Honey Ice Cream booth. Free Ice Cream to all who help. Parking pass to be provided and PSBA T-shirts until they run out. The weekend help is generally abundant, but we run very tight on the weekdays.

Feel free to email me any questions aaron@fisherbeefarm.com

2016 North American Beekeeping

The American Beekeeping Federation (ABF) presents the 2016 North American Beekeeping Conference & Tradeshow in Ponte Vedra, Florida from January 5-9th. The conference includes presentations for beginners, sideliners, commercial and research. PSBA delegates are Steve Repasky, Rachel Bryson and Jim Bobb.

This is the annual event that crowns the American Honey Queen and Princess. Good luck to our Pa Honey Queen, Jessica, as she competes for 2016.

The Waggle is not intended to be used for editorials, but rather specific activities or information that may be of interest or value to PSBA membership.
